Hello All, my name is I am an addict and my name is Janet E. I am with a brand new meeting in Franklin (name to be announced). We will meet on Thursday night at 7 P.M. at the First United Methodist Church on the square. The addy is 107 N. College Street. The door you will want to take will be on your for brightside when looking at the front of the building. It will be on the corner of N. College and West Kentucky Ave. Our first meeting will be this Thursday, May 8th, at 7 p.m.

There is a small group of us, 4 or 5 homegroup members, who are working together to get it going. Also, there is a lovely member from another homegroup who knows how badly we need a meeting down here and is helping us get it done. We had an f2f meeting after HJF last Wed. Evening. We had 2 homegroup members and a lovely group friend in attendance. I was asked to be GSR, at least temporarily, and to come to the area today.

We discussed why the last meeting here failed. I had moved away, but there were several homegroup members. Slowly, they all dropped out, and it was only 1 home group member and a few from drug court that came regularly. She got burned out after taking it on to keep the group financially and making sure it was opened and running every week. So she gave the key and stuff to the lady with the next amount of time who happened to be in drug court but had "almost" 3 years clean. You can imagine the chaos that ensued afterward. NA's name has definitely been blackened in Simpson County. We have downloaded the PR Manuel from WSO, and we will start having PR meetings for our group since there is currently no one as PR chair for area. We want to do this as right as we can. After studying Manuel, we want to go and see drug court and probation and parole to let them know what Narcotics Anonymous is and isn't and that we are here and following Traditions again. We know all of this will take some time, but we feel strongly that it has to be done. Hopefully, we can at least reduce the black eye we have here a bit. We know this will take time, but this core group of people are so thirsty for a meeting here again that we are willing to do whatever it takes to get it up and running again.

We have our fingers crossed that our small lit order will arrive in time. If not, we have our basic texts and the mini readings I carry in my wallet, and we will do hugs and owe them keytags I guess. Lol.

I am so glad to be home and involved again. I love you all greatly. Muah!

In loving service,

Janet E.
